ARTICLE - Section 1. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States, nor shall any State deprive any person of life, fiberty or property without due process of law, nor deny to any per-son within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

Section 2. Representives shall be apportioned among the Several States which may be included within this Union according to the respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State, excluding Indians not taxed, but whenever in any State the elective franchise shall be denied to any portion of its citizens, not less than twentyportion of its citizens, not less than twentyone years of age, or be in any way abridged, except for participation in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation in such State shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens bear than twenty-one years of age.

Section 8. Until the fourth day of July, 1870, all persons who voluntarily adhered to the late insurrection, giving it aid and comfort, shall be excluded from the right to vote for members of Congress and for electors for President and Vice President of the United States.

Section 4. Neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation already incurred or which may hereafter be incurred in aid of insurrection or war against the United States, or any claim for compensation for loss of involuntary service or labor.

Section 5. The Congress shall have power to enforce by appropriate legislation the pro-visions of this article. Mr. Raymond, of New York, voted in the affirmative, and much applause. The amendment now goes to the Senate, and the impression seems to be that the proposed amendment will pass that body, as it has passed the House, by a two-thirds vote. It will then require the ratification of the Legislatures of three-fourths of the States.— Mr. Banks, of Massachusetts, stated in the House on the 10th, that the amendment would be ratified by twenty-five States now represented in Congress, and Tennessee and Arkansas, which had already passed enactthe twenty-seven necessary for the ratification of the amendment.

The Senate passed the bill, after striking out the amendment which they heretofore adopted preventing parties appointed to office during the recess from receiving pay until confirmed by the Senate. The Senate then adjourned till Monday.

Jefferson Davis Indicted --- His trial will probably commence in Richmond in June. BALTIMORE, May 11 .- Yesterday Jefferson Davis was indicted for treason against the United States by the grand jury in session at posed will take place in June. Dr. Bigelow, of Alexandria, one of the members of the grand jury, who reached Baltimore this morning, says the statement that Mr. J. Gillingham, the forem in of the grand jury, declined serving as a member of Ohio Railroad over main roads to that body upon hearing the opening charge of Judge Underwood, is incorrect. Mr. Gil- Is now prepared to receive Freight, Merchandise, lingham had never served on a jury before, and simply requested to be excused from he was afraid he was not competent to fill designated, and all intermediate points as that position. He made no objection whatever to serving as a member of the jury.

SECOND DESPATCH. NORFOLK, May 11 .- Late yesterday afternoon the grand jury of the United States Court, in session here, brought in a true bill of indictment against Jeff. Davis for treason, and adjourned until the first Tuesday in June, to meet in Richmond. NORFOLK, May 11.—The grand jury, which met here on Tuesday last, has adjourned until the first Tuesday in June. Yesterday afternoon a true bill of indictment against Jeff. Davis and John C. Breckinridge for treason against the United States, was brought in and agreed upon, after which the jury adjourned. The jury was composed of twenty-four men, all Virginians, and Unionists. There was a remarkable unanimity among them on all the important question to which their attention was directed. Many of them had suffered in their persons and property at the hands of the rebel leaders, and five of them were, I am informed, consigned to Castle Thunder during the rebellion for their refusal to swear allegiance to the rebel government. These men are all "radicals," who believe that "treason is a crime and ought to be punished." The testimony brought before them, and on which they based their bill of indictment, was overwhelming against Davis and Breckinridge, but especially Davis. What is perhaps most remarkable about it is the fact that it was recei e l prin i sally from witne ses, who had served either in the civil or military service of the rebellion. The evidence against Davis was very direct and positive, and suprised even the jurors. We make the following extract from the charge of Judge Underwood to the Grand

"The omission of the last grand jury to find indictments against those who may be considered the principal criminals and greatest offenders against the national sovereignty, R. HOE & CO'S. CIRCULAR SAWS, who were, in fact, the most prominent in position at the time they deserted their places in the Senate of the United States, and became leaders of the rebellion, has been misunderstood and the President has informed the Court that he is unwilling to advise pro ceedings against such subordinates as Wirz, while their superiors and more guilty leaders are not brought to justice. This Court entirely agrees with the President in his often repeated declaration, that treason is the greatest of crimes and ought to be signally punished, and that it is cowardly to punish the subordinate and comparatively insignificant, and allow the principals to escape. We also concar in the opinion that the leaders in the ATTORNEY AT LAW. late rebellion may be treated either as traitors or public enemies, as they were undoubt- (Office at residence, near the Deaf and Dumb and edly both by the laws of nations." The counsel for the defence contend that the case is not covered by the civil rights bill, and officers of the freedmen's court insist the other way. The case has excited much interest and comment, and the court-room is expected to be thronged when the trial comes on.

Important Decision --- The Civil Rights Bill declared unconstitutional.

New ORLEANS, May 10 .- Judge Abell, of the First District Court, decided the civil rights bill to be unconstitutional, and not binding. The Court argues that the present Congress is unconstitutionally constituted. The Morganzio and Grand levees have flowed. The destruction of property will be incalculable.

DEDUCTION IN PRICE

AMERICAN WATCHES. Made at Waltham, Mass. IN CONSEQUENCE OF THE RECENT great decline in gold and silver, and all the materials used in the manufacture of our goods, and in anticipation of a still fasther decline, we have reduced our prices to as low a point as they care

OF THE

With Gold at Par, so that no one need hesitate to buy a watch now from the expectation that it will be cheaper at some future time. The test of ten years and the manufacture and sale of More than 200,000 Watches, have given our productions the very highest rark among time-keepers. Commencing with the determination to make only thoroughly excellent, watches, our business has steadily increased as the public became acquainted with their value, until for montils together, we have been unable to supply the demand. We have repeatedly ex-larged our factory buildings until they now cover over three acres of ground, and give secommodation to more than eight hundred workmen.

We are fully instilled in stating that we now make MORE THAN ONE-HALF OF ALL THE WATCHES SOLD IN THE UNITED STATES. The different grades are distinguished by the ollowing trade-marks engraved on the plate:

iollowing trade-marks engraved on the plate:

1. "American Watch Co.," Waltham, Mass.

2. "Appleton, Tracy & Co.," Waltham, Mass.

3. "P. S Bartlett," Waltham, Mass.

4. "Wm. Ellery."

5. OUR LADIES' WATCH of first quality is named "Appleton, Tracy & Co.," Waltham, Mass.

6. Our next quality of Ladies' Watch is named "P. S. Bartlett," Waltham, Mass. These watches are furnished in a great variety of sizes and styles of cases. styles of cases.

The American Watch Co., of Waltham, Mass., authorize us to state that without distinction of trade-marks or price, ALL THE PRODUCTS OF THEIR FACTORY ARE FULLY WARRANTED to be the best time-keepers of their class ever made in this or any other country. Buyers should remember that unlike the guarantee of a foreign maker who can never be reached, this warr nies is good at all times against the Company or their agents, and that if after the most thorough trial, any watch should prove defective in any particu-lar, it may always be exchanged for another. As the American Watches made at Waltham, are for sale by dealers generally throughout the country, we do not solicit orders for single watches. CAUTION.—The public are cantioned to buy only of respectable dealers. All persons selling counterfeits will be prosecuted. ROBBINS & APPLETON, AGENTS
